Re: C.Cs. 39/17.11.1931. Compassionate Gratuity on behalf of late Mr. N.V. Narasimha Iyengar Clerk, District Educational office Kolar

Sta file 32-31 (2-4+50) flag P.

With reference to the above I beg to state that my elder brother, late Mr. N. Sundara Raj, B.A.L. who was a claimant on the above C.C. Passed away on 21.6.33, and I have applied to the Comptroller to make the above payable to the Surviving heirs i.e. my mother & myself I had furnished the death certificate in respect of the Date of my brother. Though the matter is delayed for over 7 months nothing has been settled about this claim. There are already 2 Lakh Years Postal work due on the above.

As we are put to great financial difficulties I request you to kindly arrange for the early settlement of the above claim.

Mr. P.S.

Hoping that this will receive your early attention,

Rs. 150/- per.

I beg to remain,
Sir.
Yours obediently

General and Revenue Secretariat S&A File No. 235 of 1933.

Serial No.

U.O.No.1614/Gen. Dated: 23rd March 1934.

Returned with compliments.

The applicant had put in a petition intimating the death of his brother and requesting this office to authorise payment in favour of the surviving two heirs of the above deceased, viz., himself, son and widow of the deceased. He was informed that he should address the Head of the Department in the matter as each case has to be decided on merits.

2. Reference is invited in this connection to your letter No.Fl.3516/S&A 116-33-2 dated 3/4-1-1934 ordering that a gratuity once distributed need not be revised on the subsequent death of one of the claimants.

3. The present case is one where the compassionate gratuity was paid in the form of a pension for a limited period of 10 years. I am of opinion that the usual rule that a pension lapses to Government on the death of a pensioner irrespective of the circumstances of his heirs should apply to these pensions also. In a case like this where the pension was drawn on the joint receipt of all the heirs or in a case where one person draws the amount on behalf of the others it is necessary in the light of what is stated above to reduce the pensions by a proportionate fraction assuming that each heir who was depending on the deceased is ordinarily entitled to an equal share. A certificate that all the heirs are alive will have to be furnished by the drawer on each voucher for the latter class of cases.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

M. Venkatesalyengar

Controller.

Submitted with the reduction sanctioning the C.G. as per rule pending.

The comptroller's opinion is that just as pension lapses or ceases upon the death of a pensioner, the amount of C.G. payable as 'special Pension' also should lapse or cease upon the death of one of the heirs

There is nothing in the rules to guide cases of this kind

The comptroller proposes gradual reduction in the amount of the C.G, Consequent on the gradual extinction of the heirs to it.

H Secy) 29/3/34.

I do not think any reduction should be made as suggested – at any rate in the present case. The amount of gratuity is based on Service past in and forfeiture of claimants – It does not depend on the number of claimants. In the present case the officials' window
